Croatia & Slovenia Gems of the Adriatic

June 13 – 27, 2025

Day 1 | Friday, June 13 | Arrive Ljubljana, Slovenia, transfer to Bled

Prepare to be enchanted by Bled's emerald lake and tiny magical island in the heart of the Julian Alps.

Day 2 | Saturday, June 14 | Bled (Ljubljana), Slovenia

Ljubljana, considered Europe's greenest capital, might well be the most charming city you'll ever visit. Our tour includes the mighty 12th century fortress that stands proudly atop Castle Hill, and a reenactment of events that shaped the city's history.

Day 3 | Sunday, June 15 | Bled (Bohinj, Radovljica), Slovenia

We begin at the Alpine Dairy Museum, for insight into the importance and endurance of pastoral life. After a traditional farmer's lunch, we proceed to Radovljica, Šivec House and the Apiculture Museum.

Day 4 | Monday, June 16 | Bled → Portorož, Slovenia

Partizanska Bolnica Franja was a secret field hospital used by the WWII resistance movement. Today it is a poignant monument to the humanity and heroism of Slovenes who stood in opposition to fascism and nazism. This afternoon we continue to the seaside town of Portorož.

Day 5 | Tuesday, June 17 | Portorož, Slovenia

Salt has been mined in Sečovelje since the Middle Ages, and traditional methods still account for its exceptional taste. We'll visit the salt pans and museum dedicated to preserving the fascinating history and heritage of this precious commodity. We end the day at Lipica, home of the majestic Lipizzan horses, with a tour of the stables and presentation of the classical riding school.

Day 6 | Wednesday, June 18 | Portorož, Slovenia

Postojna Cave is an enchantment of tunnels, passageways and karst formations that will leave you speechless. You won't want to leave, but we must, to explore Predjama Castle, a fairytale world where human ingenuity meets nature's wonders. Perched atop a towering cliff, it was the magnificent, defiant, intriguing site of legendary 15th century robber baron Erasmus.

Day 7 | Thursday, June 19 | Portorož, Slovenia → Plitvice, Croatia

Experience the very essence of tranquility at our ecolodge, a refuge for anyone seeking a deep connection to nature.

Day 8 | Friday, June 20 | Plitvice, Croatia

It's hard to conjure anything more wondrous than 16 terraced lakes joined by waterfalls, flowing into a limestone canyon. This photo enthusiast's dream is described as "the most laughing and light-minded of natural prodigies."

Gems of the Adriatic

June 13 – 27, 2025

Day 9 | Saturday, June 21 | Plitvice → Split, Croatia

Split was the 4th century holiday home of Roman Emperor Diocletian. With Roman ruins and grand museums juxtaposed with trendy shops and cafes, this city has it all.

Day 10 | Sunday, June 22 | Split, Croatia

Split is overflowing with rich history and a storied past that have left traces in everyday life. This morning we immerse ourselves in antiquity and explore the most significant sites. This afternoon we visit a gallery that features the most important work of renowned sculptor Ivan Meštrović.

Day 11 | Monday, June 23 | Split (Hvar & Stari Grad), Croatia

Board a catamaran and set sail for Hvar Island. The serenity belies the 16th century uprising against Venetian nobility. Continue to the UNESCO town of Stari Grad, founded by Greeks in 384 BC.

Day 12 | Tuesday, June 24 | Split → Mali Ston → Dubrovnik, Croatia

Fun fact: some oysters have both male and female reproductive organs. Learn more on our oyster farm tour and optional tasting of this delicacy, then continue to Dubrovnik.

Day 13 | Wednesday, June 25 | Dubrovnik, Croatia

Dubrovnik reveals the genius of history's architectural masters. Its ramparts and fortresses are enduring monuments to emperors and legends, and speak softly of a bygone era.

Day 14 | Thursday, June 26 | Dubrovnik, Croatia (Elaphiti Islands)

Guardians of the coast and sea, the Elaphiti Islands have been home to generations of sailors. Our full day excursion is by private boat.

Day 15 | Friday, June 27 | Departure
